

Primary School Development Cup

The Inaugural 2010 Primary School Development Cup was held last Friday with 12 teams competing in the One Day Rugby Union Carnival. The final was played in the senior comp between Mundingburra State School & the Willows School. After a very tense game Mundingburra State were crowned the Champions. In the Junior Competition Charters Towers School Columba Catholic College were crowned the winners edging out Southern Cross on for and against points. The Carnival was enjoyed by all and saw some excellent Rugby being played. The development cup will hopefully grow in the years to come as the prominent Primary Schools Rugby Union event on the Primary Schools Sport calendar. A big thank you must go out to all teachers, principles, parents and club volunteers for making the day a success.

Congratulations to all Minor Premiers for 2010
