

Junior Brolga Academy

The TDRU development staff have wrapped up another successful Junior Brolga Academy this week.

The academy was for current and potential players between the ages of 8 to 17 years old in 2010. The session plans were designed to encourage participation into the future and to increase the skill development of the current players whilst working within your age specific groups. The Clinic was a safe and enjoyable experience for both participants and coaches.

TDRU development staff hope to see the players take their new skills onto the field when they play for their club after the school holidays.

CASH FOR CLUBS

Sponsorship is always a tough ask, especially in the current financial climate, but it doesn't have to be. There is one common element amongst all of your players, members, coaches and supporters that when used correctly can provide your club with a growing monthly income that can far outstrip the value of any potential sponsorship your club has ever seen.

NQ Telecom, in partnership with the TDRU have developed this unique revenue opportunity that is so potent it could deliver more than $10,000 per year to your club without costing anyone a cent.

HOW DOES IT WORK

Every one of your players has a mobile, home phone, internet or combination of all of these services. Simply transfer these services to NQ Telecom, nominate your club as the beneficiary and a percentage of their bill will be donated to your club each and every month for as long as they are a customer.

To become part of this initiative go to Congratulations!!!

Congratulations go to Michael Parker who was just named in the team to represent Queensland at next month's National Schoolboy Championships in Brisbane (July 6-11).

Queensland Schools has won the national schoolboys title for the past four years running.

The teams were chosen following three days of trial matches at Ballymore involving squads from the Associated Independent Colleges (AIC), Combined Secondary Schools (CSS) and Greater Public Schools (GPS).
