

Queensland Under 18 Indigenous Schoolboys Championships

Queensland has won the Under 18 Indigenous Schoolboys Championships which wrapped up last Friday night with an address from Sport and Recreation Minister Karl Hampton.

Mr Hampton addressed the 88 Indigenous schoolboys at an awards presentation in Alice Springs and said he was pleased the camp had been a success.

"The Northern Territory was proud to host this successful event that produced top quality rugby with some of the players also involved in several community engagements," Mr Hampton said.

"I would like to commend the organizers, players and officials on a successful week and we look forward to hosting the event again next year in the Territory."

As part of the camp an Indigenous Schoolboys XV will be selected in the coming weeks to participate in the Division two Australian Schoolboys Championships later in the year.

Results from the U18s Round Robin Tournament

Congratulations, Jaidyn Yeatman and Ginau Harry from Teachers West and Anton Wolmby from Charters Towers on a successful competition.
