

Personality of the week

BY THE CUNNING CURLOO

Scott O'Neill striking a pose.

As we kick off school holidays this week, the Curloo thought it only fair that a school teacher find his way into the spotlight for the latest instalment of Personality of the Week. Scott O'Neill is well known around the Townsville and District Rugby Union community for his red hair and fair complexion. After kicking off his 30th year of Rugby in Townsville with season 2012, he was rewarded with selection in the North Queensland side to take on South Queensland. Coach Terry Shiells said that O'Neill 'basically picked himself' after stellar performances for the Townsville Brolgas including some trademark barnstorming runs and brutal big hits and also his aggression and effectiveness at the breakdown. When Scott sat down for an interview with the Curlew he confessed his dream is to one day don the colours of his favourite club, the Teachers West Bulldogs. But Scott's involvement with Rugby isn't just as a player, he also coaches and more importantly referees school matches. He discovered his passion for refereeing after forming a strong on-field bond with referees due to his kind-hearted and polite approach towards them. So if you're heading to the Burdekin this weekend, make sure to make an appearance at Casalegno Field to see Scott O'Neill in action as the North Ward Old Boys take on the Burdekin Canetoads in a match which won't disappoint.

Don't forget to pick up a ticket in the Art Union on your way through the gate....Some lucky Rugby supporter is going to win a brand new Toyota Yaris....Thanks to Mike Carney Toyota
