

Personality of the week

By The Crooked Curloo

The Curloo this week sets his sharpened beak on the sights of one of the key members of Townsville Rugby's youngest clubs. His name is Anthony Jacobs (or TJ to those who know him well). TJ has been involved in Rugby since the dawn of time it seems and was an inspirational Junior coach who enjoyed seeing players, parents and supporters take pleasure in the game he loves. It was with these years of experience and foresight, like the great Martin Luther King he awoke one day with a dream. A dream that one day in the future he would see scores of children and their families from areas of Townsville previously untouched by rugby, playing and enjoying this game that we all love. It was with this dream and initiative that TJ and his courageous partner Anita set upon putting hours and hours into bulding from virtually nothing a brand new club, with just a handful of players training at Ryan Catholic College in Kirwan. Today the Western Suburbs RUC have 6 teams playing including a succesful 3rd grade and are hoping to expand even more in the coming years. There is no better tribute to TJ than the success of his club the Devils and the realisation and relentlessness of one man with a dream. TJ we salute you and Anita for all you have done to make Townsville Rugby and the Western Suburbs RUC better organisations. .
