

Personality of the Week.
By the Credible Curloo.

With the Cathedral school taking on St Augustine's from Cairns on Friday in the highly anticipated Ballymore Cup Clash, the Curloo has this week spoken to revered schoolboy coach John Rauch (pronounced Reow-ch) or JR as he is known affectionately by many. JR has been a PE teacher and mentor at the prestigious Cathedral School since its small beginnings back in 1917. In his youthful days represented New South Wales at school level, Western Australia for University Rugby as well as Brothers, Brolgas, North Queensland and Queensland Country whilst situated in Townsville.

With a penchant for skilfulness and bruising defence, JR is as well respected as they come in the TDRU community. In his coaching career he has seen many amazing accomplishments including a National Championship with his Queensland Schools Side for which he is in his 5th year of coaching, 3 State Championships with Northern Region Open schools teams in 2004, 2011 and 2012. John is also a well seasoned tourist taking teams to Japan (where he is a world renowned body builder under his stage name John-San) on 6 occasions and the United Kingdom as a part of the Cathedral School's UK Tour on 8 occasions. JR's famous sharpened wit and unrivalled enthusiasm is what makes him an outstanding coach. His commitment to Rugby in Townsville however, is what makes John stand out from the rest. Whenever an extra hand is required, he is the first to step in, which is one of the reasons why he has been so successful through the years.
