

Personality of the Week.
By the Classy Curloo.

Congratulations

Congratulations to Linda Grevsmulh who won this week's raffle thanks to Troy Williams, The Good Guys. Linda won a brand new DeLonghi Espresso and Cappuccino machine!

This week's raffle prize is a brand new 40 inch Samsung LED LCD Smart TV To be a chance at winning, buy yourself a $2 ticket in the raffle this weekend at Mike Carney Toyota Park.

As we approach the 2012 TDRU Finals Series the Curloo thought it only fair that this week's target is one of the Townsville Referees' finest. Rowland Holmes, or Rowlie as he is known around Mike Carney Toyota Park, is a former player for the famous Burdekin Canetoats. In his playing days Rowlie began his career as a flashy fullback, notorious for humiliating defenders with his agile footwork. He gradually made the transition into the front row (due to the development of his body) where he started to shine. Rowlie's involvement with Rugby goes beyond the field however, having coached Junior Brolgas at the State Championships and also coaching the Burdekin 1st Grade side throughout the years. Now this moustached Rugby lover has taken on the Development Coordinator role within the Referees' association as well as officiating games on a weekly basis. He is held in high regard by all of his peers, whether it is referees or players, due to his consistent performances on the field. This week you can find the man with the trademark Mo at Mike Carney Toyota Park as he referees the North Ward Old Boys vs Burdekin Canetoats at 4:00pm Saturday which is sure to be the match of the round.
