Personality of the Week.

By the Contentious Curloo.

Whilst sitting on his nest on the weekend, pondering life's mysteries, the Curloo noticed the Charters Towers Bulls taking on Teachers West down at Mike Carney Toyota Park. This week's Personality of the Week is the Charters Towers powerhouse, Russell 'The Love-Muscle' West. Russell is a Charters Towers product who started playing Rugby in the Junior Bulls inaugural year of 2006 after playing a mix of Rugby League and Aussie Rules. The Curloo has discovered that Russell made a name for himself throughout his junior years as a ball-playing number 8, with a unique ball-handling style and a disgusting mullet. As his body ceased to grow vertically after turning 14, Russell slowly made the move to his now preferred position of hooker.

Having been identified as one of Australia's Next Top Models due to his chiselled physique and willingness to get his gear off, Russell chose to stick with what he does best and pursue his career in the 15-man game. After making this decision he has had numerous Representative opportunities including playing with Townsville, North Queensland and Queensland Country U19 and U20. The Bulls take on the Burdekin Canetoads in the 2nd Grade competition which is shaping to be a great game so make your way down to Mike Carney Toyota Park to catch a glimpse of Russell in action.
