

Personality of the Week.

By the Causal Curloo.

This weekend sees the conclusion of the 2012 Townsville and District Rugby Union Competition rounds as we get ready to roll straight into the Finals Series. This week's Personality of the Week is a player who is back to his barnstorming best after a large stint on the sideline. Christopher 'Crum' Barlow has been on the sideline for the majority of the season after struggling to overcome a minor calf strain. Chris has been a stalwart at the Teachers West club for many years now and has become an integral part of not only the team, but his club's community. Barlow saw the light after spending his junior years playing soccer and progressed to his highest representative honours whilst playing for the Queensland Country Heelers. His irritatingly high voice has become a frequent sound to a referee's ears, a noise which crowds have now become accustom to. When Chris isn't playing rugby, you'll find him studying the latest Wattyl catalogue, a habit which has made him into the ultimate paint expert. Make sure to get down to Warrina Park to see Chris and the Teachers West Bulldogs do battle with the Burdekin Canetoads.

Art Union Draw.

The Townsville and District Rugby Union's Art Union draw will be held on Friday the 31st August at 6.30pm. (not the 25th Aug as previously stated) The draw will be held at Mike Carney Toyota Park at 6.30pm. Good luck and thanks to all who purchased a ticket to support Townsville Rugby...
