Personality of the Week

The Compassionate Curloo,

The Finals have arrived at last and the Curloo is eager to sit back and enjoy some quality Rugby which is sure to come this weekend at Mike Carney Toyota Park. This week's Personality of the Week is a bloke who does a lot of behind-the-scenes work for the Townsville and District Rugby Union Referee's Association.

Roberto Kelly took on the role of TDRURA Appointments Officer this year in a position which can easily go unnoticed. Rob and his partner in crime, TDRURA President Michael White, are the men ensuring that all 32 matches each week have the necessary match officials. As is the case with most referees, Rob's involvement with the game began as a player. His stature in the game overshadowed his physical height. With his out-standing ball control, unnatural body strength and wicked pace around the field he was a player not only feared by the opposition but respected as well. But sadly, as Robby grew older he also became shorter, resulting in him giving the game away forever. These days if he is not reffing or helping out in some way, you will find Robert "Dobby" Kelly roaming the grounds at Mike Carney Toyota Park lending an ear to those who want a chat about all things Rugby, Religion and Politics.
