

Local Queensland Country Heelers win interstate carnival

Local Townsville players cap off a stellar Representative year, just a week after becoming Queensland Country Champions with the victorious North Queensland outfit over South and Central Qld, the local players brought home the silverware again over the weekend when they represented the Queensland Country Heelers in Seniors and Under 20s competitions in a interstate carnival featuring Tasmania, Victoria, South Australia and the Northern Territory in Adelaide.

The Under 20s Heelers outfit featuring 8 Townsville Brolgas ran out narrow winners of the interstate trophy despite going down to locals South Australia 21 – 14 on the first day, the young Heelers fought back to beat last year’s winners Victoria 26 – 17 to win the trophy on aggregate.

The Senior Heelers who featured 6 Local Brolgas proved dominant from the start with a solid performance against long term rivals NT Mozzies 48 – 0. The Heelers then backed it up with a 41 – 7 defeat of Tasmania on day 2 and had only the local team South Australia standing in the way of the trophy. The Heelers showed some great character to fight back after being behind at half time to eventually run out winners 28 – 18 at full time.

Following a 28 all draw against the NSW Country Cockatoos in Townsville in May and a last gasp win over them in Newcastle in June the result caps a great year for the Heelers and Country Rugby. Well done to the players and management.
