Senior Qld Country Championships

The senior men and under 19 North Queensland teams are prepped for a strong performance at the 2016 Queensland Country Championships. The teams comprised of players from Townsville, Cairns, Mount Isa and Mackay are ready to take on the best rugby talent from Central and South Queensland. The championships are being held at Bond University in the Gold Coast over the coming weekend. If forecasts are correct the teams can expect some trying conditions in what could be heavily forward-dominated games. Each regional contingent will meet in Brisbane tomorrow morning before travelling down to the Gold coast for an afternoon training session. Saturday will see the first games played by North Queensland at the Country championships with both teams taking on Central Queensland with Sunday seeing the teams face off against South Queensland.

The carnival will be a great showcase of Queensland country rugby, with all players competing to earn a place in the Queensland Country teams, to be named after the weekend. The TDRU will endeavour to keep you update with results throughout the weekend.
