CONGRATULATIONS! To all the teams that participated in the 2016 TDRU Competition. To all the teams that bow out of the Competition this week thank you all for your contribution to a fantastic season of RUGBY! We look forward to seeing you at Mike Carney Toyota Park in the coming weeks as passionate spectators and back on the Rugby field in 2017.

We would like to give a very special mention and thank you to the Under 8s teams in particular this year who have been fantastic additions to the TDRU competition, we look forward to seeing you all grow into Seniors in the coming years. To the teams that qualify for Semi Finals after this week, we wish you all the best for the upcoming Finals series. Once again thanks to all the Parents, Players, Volunteers and Spectators for their positive support in 2016.

Best Wishes,

Terry Shiells

Director of Rugby - TDRU

The 2016 'Townsville Festival of Rugby 7s' nominations have opened this week and the TDRU are predicting this year's instalment of the month long festival to shatter all previous records of participation, cementing the TDRU Festival as one of the biggest of its kind in the state.

"Every year the Rugby community as a whole really look forward to this event on the calendar and in the six years of running it we have seen it grow rapidly into a great tournament". TDRU Spokesperson Daniel Withers said. "We have always aimed to accommodate the most social of teams and the most professional of teams as well, as it is a celebration of Rugby as a high stakes competition".

With the Senior 7s event kicking things off on the October long weekend (1st and 2nd) followed by the ever popular Junior legs (Primary aged and Teenaged Boys & Girls) later in October then rounded out by a proposed Ella Indigenous 7s in early November the Festival or Rugby 7s will be enormously popular for all ages.

"The event has grown by enormous proportions over the last 6 years from a small Senior carnival to a month long event that had well over 1000 players take the field in 2015. The Sport is growing fiercely in popularity and we are looking at targeting new areas for participation including a Non-Contact version of Rugby 7s called VIVA 7s which has been designed by the ARU, as well as an Indigenous - Ella 7s in early November for Mens, Womens and Under 16s (Boys and Girls)" Withers said.

The Festival Kicks off just after Rugby 7s makes its Debut at the Rio Olympics with the Aussie Womens and Mens teams huge chances to medal in the Tournament. The Queensland Rugby Union selectors will be on deck at the local Townsville leg of the Rugby 7s this year identifying talent for their Queensland Mens, Womens and Youth (U18) Boys and Girls teams heading to the Nationals Rugby 7s Championships held in Adelaide and Perth respectively in November.

"There is plenty of opportunity for local players to realise their State, National and even Olympic aspirations in Rugby 7s" said Withers.
