Queensland Rugby Union Junior State Championships.

This year the Brolgas will be taking 4 teams to the Gold Coast in the Under 12, 13, 14 and 16 age groups to compete in the State Champs from the 1st to the 3rd of July.

We are calling for staff interested in Coaching and Managing a team. Please go to our website www.tdru.com.au for all the information and nomination form.

Please note - Player nominations will open after the Easter Holidays.

Senior Brolgas Squad List

The 2016 Senior Brolgas Mens squad to compete in the Annual Anzac Day game against the 3rd Brigade and the North Queensland Championships has been named.

The team features many returning faces from last year's Championship team as well as a host of new faces, with a few players moving up the ranks from the Queensland Country Under 20's team.

Congratulations to all the players!!

Under 18's Japan Tour

The 2016 Under 18 Japan Tour is underway! The Team left on Friday the 25th of March for the 2 week trip on the island of Kyushu. Updates from the team below, also keep an eye on our Facebook page for the latest results.

29th of March - Game 1 vs Kitakyushu Select

The Brolgas Under 18's are victorious in their first encounter today, coming home strong in a well contested match against a Kitakyushu Select Team 53 points to nil. The Brolgas battled early with the great speed of the game and the incredible enthusiasm and skill of the local team. The boys dug deep and thwarted the oppositions attacking raids to eventually run away with the match, despite it being closer than the score line suggests. The team had a tearful farewell following the match today before arriving in Nagasaki safely this afternoon.

31st of March – Game 2 vs Nagasaki Select

The TDRU Brolgas played their second game today against a Nagasaki Select team, going down to the better side 25 points to 7. The Locals raced off to a cracking pace capitalizing on the tourist's mistakes to lead at half time 15 – 0. To their credit the Brolgas hit back with a Sam Lyttle to narrow the gap to 15 – 7 but were unable to get any closer to the win. Despite the loss the team are in high spirits thanks to the hospitality of the locals and their families. Tomorrow the team travel to Kumamoto for their third match and are looking forward to more sightseeing around Nagasaki before they depart.
